MYSTERIÖUS DISAPPEARANCE OF

A GOVERNMENT OFFICER. ALLEGED HEAVY DEFALCATIONS. A feeling of painful surprise was experienced throughout the Colony last night upon its being bruited that Mr Andronico F. Alves, one of the Treasury staff, had disappeared mysteriously, and a still more sinister aspect was given to the rumour when it was announced that serious defalcations had been discovered in Mr. Alves books, defaloations which it was stated were likely to lead to oriminal prosecution on the part of the Treasury.

It appears that Mr Carvaino, one of the oldest and most respected of the Portuguese servants in the employ of this Colony, retired on pension from the position of first clerk at the Treasury at the end of last year, and was succeeded by Mr Alves; the second clerk and accountant. The promotion has not been gazetted, but it is believed the appointment was made as from the beginning of 1893, and it is also believed that the seoufity of $5,000 required from the first clerk and cashier had not yet been arranged. As second elerk and accountant. Mr Alves had the special department of the Crown reuts under his care, and the rumour is that the defalcations in this particular instance are confined to the Crown rents and have taken place during 1892 previous to Mr Alves promotion. The defaloation is said to have been detected in the most casual way. Suspinions were raised on Baturday about a certain payment by a local Company which pays its Crown rent half-yearly in a large ump sum, and it was in checking on Saturday last the accounts for 1891-92 that the Official Auditor, Mr Nicolle, discovered the discrepancy. It was at first assumed that the discrepancy had arisen from the Company not not having paid up the full amount, and it was only on Monday morning that it was shown by the production of the receipts that there was no claim against the Company. Upon this being brought to the notice of the Colonial Treasurer, he called upon Mr Alves for an explanation. That official professed the profoundest astonishment that such as mistake could have arisen, and our information is that he obtained certain books with a view of cheaking the entries and correcting the mistake. Nothing definite seems to have been done during the whole of Monday. Mr Alves was busy in his office till close upon the dinner hour (7.30), when he went home as usual. He left his house at his customary time between 9 and 10 a.m. on Tuesday and was then seen in Shelley Street, at the top of which he resided, but after that hour

Alves until the forenoon of Tuesday. A warrant was issued which was signed in the afternoon, the sum stated being $1,600; and the following notification has been

It now appears that the majority of the books which were given over to him for the purpose of checking have also disappeared. The usual number of rumours have been circulated as to the amount that has been embezzled, as to the length of time over which the dishouest system lies extended, and so to the various methods by which the distionesty has been covered and the books manipulated. places the total of the defatuations at bekeep awine. 30 Applications for new tween' $9,000 and $20,000. The painful surprise with which, the announcement has been roceived is accounted, for by the fact that Mr Aires was one of the best of the Portuguese civil servants and he had always been looked upon as one of the most irnstworthy. He had always taken a good position in the Colony in some measure. because of his intelligent and prepossessing namer. He has a large family, with whom much sympathy is felt. This comes es a singularly incongruous termination to a long career in the service of the Governmont. Mr Alves first entered the divil service in 1853 and for sight years was a clerk and draughtsman in the Surveyor General's office. In 1863 he was transferred to the Treasury Department. The general feeling is that Mr Alves has committed suicide. No information as to his whereabouts was to hand at the Police Station when we went to press. GOVERNMENT CENTRAL SCHOOL FOR GIRLS.

would do all in their power to fulfil their duties to the satisfaction of the members. He a so gave a word of praise to the Secretary and Treasurer for the way they had lischerged their duties during the year, and saked for more support from the members by attendance at the business meetings. Mr Kinghorn assured the members it was with sincere regret he laid down the reins of management of the Institution. It had been to him, really and truly, a labour of love to perform the duties of his office during the past twelve months, and he had endeavoured to do his best to advance the interests of the Institution of Engineers and Shipbuilders of Hongkong, Since the beginning of last year the Institution had come through several severe trials. Fortunately, in a pecuniary way, they had very little trouble, but in other ways they had come through the usual complaints incidental alike to Tostitutions and human nature. Ever since the election the conviction has been gaining ground among the rank and file of the Liberal party that the Gladstone party cannot long rotain office. Long ago one of the most clear-sighted Gladstonians epigrammatically expressed his serious belief that ' they would not live through the address. This belief is now general, both among Liberals and Conservatives. - There is, however, a very strong aversion on both sides of the House to another General Election for at least twelve months. The funds are pretty well exhausted and electioneering energy and enthusiasm are in need of a period of recuperation. "What will happen then if Mr Gladstone suffers defeat, as it is quite likely he may do within three months of the reassembling of Parliament? The query cannot be answered with any positiveless yet. But it is worth while to put it on record that under the circumstances it is highly probably that the Queen would invite the Duke of Devenshire to form t ministry, which would only be intended as a stopgap, but which might do much good work. This course is not acceptable to the Conservatives, and whether it will prove casible time must show.

I have had an opportunity of sesing the complete list of the pictures already selected to represent British art at the Chicago Exhibition. It is strongly representative, and reflects great credit on Sir Percy Wood and Mr Beck, who have had the matter in hand. It has, however, its weak points, as these gentlemen' frankly admit. "Dear Sir,—I am a poor hand at expressing my feelings, but I should like to thank you. Your luxeages ings, but I should like to thank you. Your lazenges have done wonders in relieving my terrible cough. Since I had the operation of 'Trachectomy' the same as the late Emperor of Germany, and unlike him, thank God, I am still alive) performed at St. Bartholomew's Hospital, no one could possibly have had a more violent cough; it was so had at times that it quite exhausted me. The many, which was very copious and hard, has been softened, and I have been able to get rid of it without difficulty.—I am, sir, yours truly, J. HH.L.

MEDICAL NOTE. The above speaks for itself. From strict inquiry it appears that the benefit from using Kenting's Cough Lozenges is understated. The operation was a specially severe one, and was performed by the specialist, Dr. H. T. Butlin, of St. Bartholomew's Hospital. Since the operation the only means of relief is the use of these Lozenges. So successful are they that one affords immediate benefit, although from the nature of the case the throat irritation is intense.

UNRIVALLED TESTIMONY. Under data Sept. Sth; 1891, Mr. Hill again writes I should long since have been dead, but for your Lozenges-they are worth their weight in gold. I will gladly see and tell anyone what a splendid cough remedy they are.
